GOING IS FEARFUL ON PIMLICO TRACK

Favorites at Close Prices Win Most of Day's Races.

Pimlico, Md., April 25.—Favorites at close prices won most of the races here today. The card contained no feature other than the steeplechase, whose every jump was a water jump. The going was fearful and was evidently not to the liking of Jimmy Lane, the favorite. Black Bridge, a big, strapping colt, fairly wallowed in the slush and was under restraint most of the time.

Reduced Card at Aqueduct. Aqueduct, N. Y., April 25.—The rain of last night made the track deep in mud, and was responsible for the card being greatly reduced at Aqueduct today. Favorites won the majority of the events. The feature, the Union stakes, resulted in a narrow victory for the favorite, Ben Loyal, after a terrific drive through the final furlong with Frank Purcell, who came with a rush, but just failed to get up. Runs Into Plate Glass Window.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Newbern, N. C., April 25.—A horse attached to a dray of the Cutler Blades Hardware Company became frightened at the Norfolk and Southern freight depot this afternoon, and only stopped after he had run through one of the plate glass windows of the C. S. Duffy Drug Company, at the corner of Middle and South and Front Streets. No one was hurt, but the horse was badly cut up, and the large plate glass of the drug company completely demolished.
